

Old Spring Aided Town

LIBERTY, Mo. (U.P.)—An old spring, around which this Missouri town was founded in 1820, was pressed into service again during the great drought. Cleaned of rubbish and refuse, the spring, more than 100 years old, is supplying sparkling water to farmers for their livestock.

Jaunty Gas Attack Hats

LONDON (U.P.)—In the window of a fashionable milliner's shop in the West End of London two models, life displayed wearing gas masks surmounted by chic hats, bearing two cards: "Jaunty hats for gas attacks." "Pretty grim, but you must be smart!"

Long Beach Man Pleads Guilty To Charge of Theft

Rush T. Lewis, 3733 California avenue, Long Beach, was arrested Saturday night, August 18, at Cliff House, White's Point, on a charge of petty theft and pleaded guilty in the Lomita township justice court Wednesday, August 22. Lewis plead not guilty when arraigned on Monday, and asked for a jury trial which was set for August 24, but decided to change his plea.

Lewis was accused of having taken $71 in cash and checks from a purse belonging to a woman in the party which he was entertaining, and when Deputy Elmer Straight of the Lomita radio detail was called to the scene, he said to have been detected in the act of getting rid of a roll of bills amounting to $50 which he had concealed about his person. Judge Esther I. Dennis ordered the money which was produced as evidence, turned over to the rightful owner and fined Lewis $150 or 60 days in the county jail. All but $50 of the fine was suspended and Lewis paid the balance.

Attorney A. Isen Endorses Carrell For Justice Court

Attorney Albert Isen of Torrance this week added his endorsement of Judge Frank Carrell for election to the office of Justice of the Peace in the new Inglewood township.

"After having observed the fair and impartial manner in which Judge Carrell presided in a recent trial in the local municipal court, I believe that Judge Carrell is best qualified to discharge the duties of this office. I have studied his record as Justice of the Peace of Gardena township, and as a judge of the municipal court of Los Angeles by assignment of the judicial council, and am confident that the ends of justice will be served by his election."

Master Plumbers Meet In Torrance

Frank Schilling of Beverly Hills, president of California Master Plumbers Association; William Neils of Wilmington, first vice president of the association, and Lewis Rame of Long Beach, secretary of the association, were the speakers at a special gathering of the Master Plumbers of this vicinity when they met in Torrance Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening to discuss the NRA plumbers' code. Approximately 75 attended the meeting.

Congressman Colden Discusses Roosevelt Plans to Provide "Full and Abundant Life"

Despite the fact that Congressman Charles J. Colden, representative of the Seventeenth Congressional District, arrived home from his strenuous duties in Washington, D. C., very late to enter the campaign, and then was laid up with an infected foot for ten more days, he has made an intensive campaign for re-election and reports that the outlook seems favorable.

Congressman

"It is most cheering to one who had an active part in bringing about the New Deal," stated Congressman Colden, "to note how loyal thousands of citizens are to the president and the present administration. And our great national program has only begun. The next session of Congress will labor with more phases of the New Deal such as old age pensions, unemployment insurance, and the great plans which President Roosevelt and administration leaders have, the foundation for which was laid at the last session of Congress. It is vitally necessary, furthermore, that the voters stand by our great humanitarian President, if we as citizens are to do our part in promoting the basis for the 'full and abundant life' which is the ideal of our present administration. Sinister influences are attempting to belittle and disrupt the New Deal and these dangerous influences must be thwarted. I implore each voter to use his most thoughtful judgment in voting next Tuesday."

Congressman Colden reports the following recent endorsements: Order of Sleeping Car Conductors; Angelus Lodge, Express Division, No. 2041, Brotherhood of Railway Clerks; Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; California Locomotive Firemen and Engineers; Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks; Order of Railway Conductors; Municipal League and Power Defense League; Harbor District Voters' Alliance; California Constitutional League and others.

Wilson called special attention to Long Beach, where he said the postmaster there was unable to deliver approximately 14,500 sample ballots out of about 32,000 mailed out to registered voters. This was 15 per cent of the number that could not be delivered because of fictitious addresses. Wilson said. About 3000 of the addresses were to vacant lots and houses that had been torn down, or in the area within the main flood control district channel. The ratio, Wilson said, was about five Democrats to four Republicans.

George Hoyt of Glendale and P. M. Abbot of the third assembly district, accompanied Wilson and substantiated his claims. According to Registrar W. M. Kerr, any person who does not live at the address given on his or her registration blank, is illegally registered. Later Kerr added: "Unless given by mistake."

Kerr exhibited to the supervisors a specially-printed card which is being sent to all precinct officers asking them to notify him of all persons whom they know have either moved away or passed away.

Judge Galbreth Is Endorsed By Many Prominent Leaders

Judge R. Morgan Galbreth of the Los Angeles municipal court, is sponsored for the superior court, office No. 19, by many men and women well known in this vicinity and throughout the country. Among them are Capt. John D. Fredericks, former Congressman and for 12 years Los Angeles county district attorney; Nathan Newby, attorney; Rev. Hugh K. Walker, Dr. Ross Moore, Melville T. Whitaker, Rolphie Bishop, Bidwell, Dr. Arthur L. Shellhorn and many others. Among women on his campaign committee are Mrs. Chester C. Ashley, prominent in women's activities throughout the state; Mrs. C. A. White and Mrs. Robert L. Burns.

Judge Galbreth, who has been a resident of the county 47 years, has been eight years on the municipal court and has sat in the superior court by assignment of the judicial council. In 1929, when running for re-election, he received the highest vote cast for a contested judicial office. He is a candidate at next Tuesday's primaries to succeed Superior Judge Edwin F. Hahn, retiring.

The judge is a veteran of the Spanish American war, having volunteered when just out of Occidental College. He was a member of the California National Guard for more than eight years and is a vice president of the California Volunteers Association.

Retail Groups Endorse Riley For Controller

Ray L. Riley, candidate for state controller, has received the unanimous endorsement of the Alliance of Retail Trade Associations; the Retail Grocers' and Merchants Association; the Northern Retail Druggists Association; the California Retail Hardware Association; the Allied Automotive Industries of California and the Diogenes Club, according to announcement of his campaign committee.

The Democratic central committee of San Diego county endorsed the candidacy of Ray L. Riley, August 15. Many Los Angeles Democrats, including Matthew B. Jones, Isadore Dockweiler, Dwight Stephenson, Jefferson P. Chandler, Zack Lamar Cobb, have added their endorsements.

Torrance Youths Receive Awards In Bank Contest

For their ideas on what the world will be like 30 years from now, Dana Adams Schmidt of Los Angeles, and Monroe Jang, of Marysville, have been awarded the two $2000 university scholarships offered by the Bank of America in its state-wide essay contest which closed recently. Thousands of young Californians competed and in all 414 awards were distributed to contestants. Among those who were awarded $10 prizes were two Torrance youths, Miss Alice Harger, 1104 Cedar, who was recently awarded a scholarship at the University of Southern California, and Lee Burns, 2117 Torrance boulevard. Miss Helen Bartlett, 25939 Narbonne avenue, was the successful Lomita contestant. Eugene F. Ward, 1200 West B street, Wilmington, also received a $10 award.

Presentation of the principal awards will be made by President A. P. Glavin at the state fair at Sacramento on September 5. Other awards will be made locally.

est has been shown in this contest as it is generally conceded that the Democratic nominee for Congress will carry the election in November due to the heavy Democratic registration in this district.

State Assembly One of the most disputed races in the district is being waged between Democratic candidates for the state assembly with Assemblyman John T. Rawls, incumbent; George G. Aikenhead, San Pedro contractor and justice of the peace; Robert Hillier, Wilmington engineer; Edward Kossin, EPIC candidate, and former State Senator Henry E. Carter playing the leading roles. Carter is also an unopposed candidate for the state assembly on the Republican ticket. He is "hoping" to win the Democratic nomination and thus clinch the November election by running against the Republican ticket.

Outside of the governor contest, perhaps the most interest locally is being shown in the various candidates for Justice of the peace in the new Inglewood township comprising the present smaller townships of Inglewood, Lomita (Torrance), Redondo Beach, Gardena and La Brea. Leading candidates for Justice of the peace are Torrance C. Welch of Torrance and the only candidate from Lomita township; Judge A. F. Monroe of Inglewood, incumbent; Judge Frank Carrell of Gardena; and Henry Polglase, Redondo Beach attorney. Others in the race are Edward L. Burton, Gardena attorney; Charles T. Woodbury, Inglewood attorney, and Robert R. Weaver, Lennox attorney. While many political prognosticators expect Judge Monroe to head the list of seven candidates because of the larger population of his home community of Inglewood, few predict that he will receive a majority of the votes cast. Failing to score over half of the total votes cast in the enlarged township, Judge Monroe would be required to stand for a run-off with the second candidate on the ballot at the November election. There seems to be a general agreement among the communities of Torrance, Redondo Beach, Gardena and Lomita, that they will unite in the November election against the Inglewood candidate. If this be true, it is quite probable that the second-top man in the August primary may win the election in November. It is with this hope in mind that friends of Torrance C. Welch are rallying to his support and it is generally predicted that he will not only receive an almost solid vote from Torrance and Lomita but will also receive many votes from other communities where he is well and favorably known.

Election Returns Early reports on the trend of the election will be available through telephone reports to be made to the registrar of voters, beginning shortly after 7 p. m. next Tuesday.

Ballot boxes from precincts in this vicinity will be checked in at the Torrance city hall. The Gardena city hall is also designated as a checking-in station. As soon as returns from the various local precincts are available they will be posted at the Torrance Herald office, 1336 El Prado, and telephone inquiries to the Herald office will also be gladly answered.

3766 Registered A total of 3766 Torrance citizens will be eligible to vote at the Tuesday primary election, according to official registration figures released by City Clerk A. H. Bartlett today. In the 12 Torrance precincts there are 2018 registered Democrats, 1557 Republicans, 17 Socialists, 9 Prohibitionists, 7 Communists, and 158 who declined to state their party.

With the exception of precincts 7 and 8, which show Republican majorities of one vote each, and precinct 5 which has five more Republican registrations than Democratic, all other Torrance precincts show substantial Democratic majorities.
